WILL SPEAK FOR THE TICKET.

Hon. W. C. Davis of this City to Take Active Part in National Campaign
Hon. W. C. Davis of this city has accepted the invitation of the national democratic executive committee and will speak in support of the Denver ticket during the present campaign.

Mr. Davis has not been advised as yet just where the committee desires him to devote his efforts, though his own preference of locality is Indiana and Kentucky. However his services are entirely at the disposal of the committee, without price.

Mr. Davis served Brazos county as representative in the Thirtieth legislature and the fact that he was re-nominated for the same office at the recent democratic primaries evidences the fact that his constituents were well satisfied with the service rendered.

The invitation of the executive committee which he accepted yesterday, is a recognition of his ability as a speaker and reasoner, and of his service to the party in this state.

PROCEEDINGS COUNTY COURT.

In compliance with the law, Mr. G. R. Wicker has made and submitted his report to the Attorney General of proceedings had in the county court of Brazos county, Hon. A. G. Board presiding, for the period beginning the first day of September, 1907 and ending August 31, 1908, and is as follows:

Condition of criminal docket—Indictments filed, 3.

Information filed, including appeals from justice court, 67.

Trials, 40; convictions, 30; acquittals, 10; dismissals, 14; appealed to court of criminal appeals, 1; pending, 15. Aggregate of fines, $982.00; aggregate of fines remitted, $100.00; aggregate of fines collected, $882.00; appeals from court perfected, 1.

The report last year from Brazos county showed fines of nearly $2000 assessed.

HONORING MR. MILNER.

The following invitation has been issued:

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lowry McInnis, at home President and Mrs. R. T. Milner and Board of Directors A. and M. College Friday, Sept. 4, 1908, 9 to 11.

TO OFFICERS Y. P. S. C. E.

You are urged to be at the prayer meeting tonight. A meeting of importance to immediately follow. Geo. Denison, President.

DEATH AT WHIST TABLE.

Deceased Many Years General Manager of the Waples-Platter Wholesale Grocery Company and Gallant Soldier of South.

Denison, Sept. 1.—Colonel J. B. Poston, general manager of the Waples-Platter Wholesale Grocery company, while a guest at the home of Levi Lingo, dropped dead. At the time of Colonel Poston's sudden demise a game of whist was in progress and deceased was one of the participants. With no warning whatever he suddenly expired.

Colonel Poston, who had been a resident of this city the past twenty years, was formerly general manager of the wholesale grocery house at Fort Worth of Joseph Brunn. He was president of the Denison board of trade.

During life civil war deceased was one of General Forrest's men and gallantly fought for the supremacy of the stars and bars. He was sixty-two years old and leaves a widow. He was grand senior counselor of the Texas division of the United Commercial Travelers.

Colonel Poston had relatives at Memphis and the remains were sent to that city for interment.

Commercial Cotton Crop.

New Orleans, Sept. 1.—Secretary Hester of the New Orleans cotton exchange reports the commercial cotton crop of the United States for the season of 1907-08, ending Aug. 31, to have been 11,571,966 bales, as compared with 13,510,982 in the season of 1906-07.

Total port receipts were 8,579,892 and overland movement 859,450, while southern consumption is placed at 2,193,227 bales.

BADLY WORSTED.

Shah's Troops Reported Having Met Decisive Defeat.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 1.—A special dispatch received from Teheran says its is reported from Tabriz that Satar Khan has inflicted a decisive defeat on the troops of the shah. The government soldiers are said to have lost 800 men killed and wounded. Civil war is raging anew in Tarriz province.

Negotiations for a Persian state loan to be placed in Great Britain, France and Russia have come to naught, as the shah refused European control of the finances of the empire.

MONUMENT DEDICATED.

Elks' Cherry Pickers Comprise One Feature of the Parade.

Toledo, O., Sept. 1.—Two main attractions of the Grand Army of the Republic encampment Tuesday were the dedication of the Fort Meig monument and the parade. In the latter 3,000 members of the local organizations marched with bands playing and banners flying. The parade was led by a platoon of mounted police. In the order named came the Cherry Pickers, the marching club of the Elks; two of the largest lodges of the Independent Order of Foresters, uniform rank of Knights of Pythias, three lodges of Knights of Maccabees, fifty children, descendants of veterans, National Veteran Women of America, Toledo Newsboys' association, the 450 members of which have done gratifying work as guides to arriving veterans; two companies of sharpshooters and one of lancers, a company of Polish-Americans in uniform and the Toledo fire department.

BRYAN AT FARGO.

Prairie Chicken Constitutes One of the Main Dishes at Banquet.

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 1.—W. J. Bryan on Tuesday continued his campaign northwest. Upon his arrival here he was met by Governor Burk, State Chairman Cashel, National Committeeman Collins, J. B. Eaton and many other prominent Democrats and conducted to the Hotel Metropole, where, before partaking of breakfast, he shook hands with a crowd which filled into the lobby. At the station several hundred persons assembled and cheered the presidential candidate as he alighted from his train. The street demonstration was a feature, people cheering, clapping hands and waving handkerchiefs.

After breakfast Mr. Bryan proceeded to the fair grounds. There he held a reception preliminary to his speech. At noon he was tendered a banquet. Prairie chicken constituted one of the main dishes.

AT LAST EXTINGUISHED.

Three Million Barrels of Oil Estimated as Being Consumed.

City of Mexico, Sept. 1.—Word reached the firm of S. Pearson & Sons that the great oil well fire which raged at Dos Bocas near Tampico for two months was extinguished Sunday.

Six giant centrifugal pumps poured gravel and mud into the mouth of the burning well for ten days and this, coupled with persistent dynamite blasting, choked the orifice and smothered the flames. The oil has again worked its way to the surface and the well is flowing at the rate of 25,000 barrels a day.

Owing to the remoteness of the well from steamship or railroad facilities, the oil is being banded in great reservoirs. It is estimated 3,000,000 barrels, valued here at $3,000,000, was consumed by fire.

No Nearer Solution.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 1.—The condition of Charles B. Roberts of Baltimore, dangerously shot last Wednesday night on the board walk, is said at the city hospital to be much improved. The mystery surrounding the shooting is still as deep as ever. The impression is gaining ground that the veil will never be lifted. Mrs. W. S. G. Williams has returned to her home near Baltimore, but Mrs. Roberts, wife of the victim, is still at this city.

OKLAHOMA DEMOCRATS.

Large Attendance at the State Convention in Tulsa.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 1.—The Democratic state convention was opened here with a large and enthusiastic attendance. Governor Haskell made the keynote speech and was followed by speeches delivered by United States Senator Owen and Congressmen Davenport, C. D. Carter and E. L. Fulton. There are 1,500 delegates from every county and hundreds of visitors present. The convention is being held in a big tent. This outdoor feature is greatly appreciated because of the hot weather.

The oil men are taking a great interest in the gathering on account of the recent decision in the pipe line suit in favor of Governor Haskell.

Richard A. Billup, originator of the Oklahoma prohibition law, and R. M. Radies, father of the Oklahoma bank deposit guarantee law, are leading participants.

A big parade was held Tuesday morning.

Chafin's First Work.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 1.—Eugene W. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for the presidency, in a speech delivered here said that one of the first things he would do after inauguration, should he be elected, would be to "clean up" the District of Columbia.

"There are few worse cities in the world," he said. "There are few with a viler lot of gambling dens or a worse 'tenderloin' section. What is called 'the division' is run wide open, almost within sight of the capitol and the white house. The last one of the different species of dens will have to close, even the one patronized almost exclusively by members of congress. All are run in violation of the law and the president has ample power to act."

Eastern Situation Satisfactory.

New York, Sept. 1.—Political conditions in the east were discussed at length at a conference between National Chairman Mack, members of the national committee and heads of various bureaus at the New York headquarters of the Democratic national committee. Chairman Mack said he had received reports from all states along the Atlantic seaboard and that he was more than satisfied from the progress of the campaign that the east could be relied upon to help swell the electoral votes for Bryan. Consideration was also given various plans for an effective campaign.

Construction Cost Colossal.

New York, Sept. 1.—Architects of the new Grand Central railway station have completed plans and estimates for that structure. The total cost of the building at the terminals on Forty-second street will reach $20,000,000. Contracts for the superstructure of the north wing are being signed. The new Grand Central will set back forty feet from Forty-second street and seventy feet from Vanderbilt avenue. It will front for eighty feet on Forty-fifth street, 460 on Lexington avenue, 260 on Dewey Place and 300 on Forty-second street.

Shoots and Kills Husband.

Jonesboro, Ark., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Arch Pickett shot and killed her husband, a well known resident of Jonesboro, because, she alleges, he was "mean to her and abused her."

The shooting occurred at the Pickett home. Mrs. Pickett escaped with her step-father, a prominent farmer, in Craighead county, in a buggy, but both were arrested at the step-father's home. Mrs. Pickett confessed having killed her husband.

Average Condition of Cotton.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The crop reporting board of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture announces that the average condition of the cotton crop Aug. 25 was 76.1 per cent of normal. This is compared with 83.7 July 25 last; 72.7, Aug. 25, 1907; 77.3, Aug. 25, 1906, and 73.3, the average of Aug. 25 conditions for the past ten years.

Test Case.

Detroit, Sept. 1.—Warrants were issued in the police court against Manager Hugh Jennings of the American Baseball League club and the ten members of the team who participated in Sunday's game with Cleveland, charging them with playing baseball on Sunday contrary to law. The case is being instituted as a test.

Amputation Necessary.

Mineral Wells, Sept. 1.—Dick Beeman, a Fort Worth druggist, was seriously wounded here by the accidental discharge of a shotgun. While crawling under a fence the trigger caught and the load was emptied in the hunter's leg, necessitating amputation.

Dreadful Crime.

San Antonio, Sept. 1.—Camp Westermann, aged fifteen years, was jailed on a charge of committing assault on Georgia Cooper, aged five. The girl is not expected to live. Both are white. The Westermann and Cooper families occupy the same house. The boy confessed.

Destitution Slight.

Fayette, N. C., Sept. 1.—Only slight temporary destitution was caused by the recent floods in this city. No lives were lost.

Taft is a born imitator. Not content with aping his patron, Roosevelt, he has been trying to copy Bryan's campaign methods, but with indifferent success.

A Pittsburg woman had a lawyer arrested and haled before a justice of the peace because he smiled at her. The charge mentioned in the complaint was "disorderly conduct."

In two months the elections will be over and the calm that follows will be a good time to start something for the good of Bryan. The Bryan-College trolley line ought to have an inning then.

The State's fiscal year began yesterday with $800,000 in the treasury. This is said to be ample to meet all the State's financial obligations. The estimates for the incoming year amount to a little more than three and a half millions.

When the bills to forbid betting on horse races were before the New York legislature the Democrats offered a measure to stop gambling in Wall street, but it was defeated. POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Gifford Pinchot, who is believed to be slated for a cabinet position in the event of Taft's election, is chief forester of the Department of Agriculture and one of the leaders in the movement for the conservation of the nation's natural resources. In 1892 he began the first systematic forestry work in the United States at Biltmore, N. C.

Lawton T. Hermans of Mason, Mich., being the only Democrat to qualify for the September primary, will be the nominee of the party for governor of Michigan.

The Republican campaign committee has arranged to have Speaker Joseph G. Cannon make a speaking tour of the country beginning in September. It is planned to have him talk if possible in every doubtful congressional district.

In next week's State election in Vermont a legislature will be chosen which will have the election of a United States senator as successor to the late Redfield Proctor. There appears to be a strong public sentiment that the honor should be conferred on ex-Governor Page.

A call has been issued for a rally of the Arkansas Republican State League to be held in Little Rock next week to arrange plans for a whirlwind finish to the Republican campaign in that State. The State election for governor and other officers will be held September 14.

Democrats of Oklahoma will meet in State convention in Tulsa, September 1, to ratify the recent nominations by primary and to frame a platform. The coming campaign will be conducted from State headquarters which will be established either in Shawnee or Guthrie.

A fight to swing the northwestern States into the Democratic column is being outlined by the Democratic national committee. Reports received at the committee headquarters in Chicago indicate, the leaders say, that Montana and other States in the mountain region form a promising battleground for the Democrats.

Colonel John N. Simpson of Dallas, the Republican candidate for governor of Texas, is sixty-one years of age and a native of Tennessee. After serving in the Confederate army until the close of the war he went to Texas and engaged in the business of cattle raising. For the past twenty years he has been a banker in Dallas.

South Dakota will vote on the county option law at the November election and both the temperance and liquor interests are conducting a lively campaign. The county option law requires a majority vote of the county at large before any township, town or city in it may, by a majority vote, license saloons.

John A. Johnson is a candidate for governor of Minnesota and in the neighboring State of North Dakota C. A. Johnson is a candidate for the gubernatorial chair. Johnson of Minnesota, as is well known, is a Democrat, while the North Dakota Johnson is a candidate on the Republican ticket.

According to the understanding among politicians the speech of Governor Hughes of New York to be delivered next week at the opening of the Ohio campaign at Youngstown will practically mark the opening of the Republican campaign for the entire country, and Governor Hughes, it is said, is writing his speech with that end in view.

The announcement that Judge S. F. Prouty is considering making the race for congress from the Seventh Iowa district on an independent ticket against Captain J. A. T. Hull has stirred up the politicians in the Hawkeye State. Captain Hull, who has served for sixteen years, defeated Judge Prouty in the recent primary by about forty votes, after a sensational fight and recount. C. O. Holly, the Democratic nominee, has been importuned to withdraw, in which case it is said the race between Hull and Prouty would be decidedly close.

SUGAR PRODUCTION IN TEXAS.

First Year's Operations Show Satisfactory Returns—More Plantations to Be Purchased.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 1.—Last year the State of Texas embarked in the sugar business on a large scale, and the results of the first year's operations show a most encouraging return upon the investment and justify the wisdom of the undertaking. Unusually heavy crops were realized on the various plantations, and the report of W. H. Gill, chairman of the State Penitentiary Board, shows that the income so derived will go far towards wiping out the debt incurred in the purchase of these properties. The State purchased 14,436 acres of sugar land, consisting of the Chenango plantation with 7,762 acres, the Ellis plantation of 5,674 acres, and the Riddick place with 1,000 acres. An option was held on the big Cunningham place of 13,000 acres, but because of a disagreement in price this deal fell through.

These plantations were worked by convict labor and have been so skillfully conducted as to prove an unqualified success. It is probable that the penitentiary board will be in the market this winter for more sugar land, as this use of the convicts seems to occasion less friction and yield better profits. Texas has, however, a number of independent sugar plantations, and all of them are realizing great profits. At the present rate of growth of this industry, in a few years the sugar trust will have to reckon with Texas for control of the markets.

A Bryan man who visited Texas during the past summer told his friends in that State that there were just enough Republicans in Texas to hold the federal offices and that the officeholders' trust did not want any competition. But the report is now current that word has been received from Oyster Bay that a sham battle will not be tolerated this year. The national party managers anticipating losses in the North will endeavor to recoup themselves by capturing a couple of congressional districts in Texas—those now represented by Slayden and Garner. A similar effort will be made in other Southern States.

MORE BANK TALK

DID it ever occur to you why all good business men keep a checking account with a bank? We will tell you. It enables them to keep their funds in a more secure place than the office safe. It gives them a better standing in the business world. It enables them to pay their bills by check, the returned check being a receipt. Individuals find a checking account very convenient and a source of saving. Money in one's pocket is often spent on the spur of the moment, while one is disposed to think twice before drawing on his balance in the Bank.

"Cheerful Clothes for Men"

An amusing situation developed in justice court Monday morning during the examining trial of Brown and Jones, charged with the murder of Williams at Mudville, when the defendants began quarreling with each other in regard to a statement made by one of the witnesses, Jones calling Brown a liar and offering to prove that he had stolen four hogs some time ago. At this point Judge McGee called for order and the trial proceeded.

PERFECT SERVICE

NOT OUR WAMPUS.

Mr. R. G. Tabor Believed It Had Been Seen Near Sherman. Constable C. L. Baker is in receipt of the following letter from Mr. R. G. Tabor, a former resident of Bryan, now living in Ardmore, which explains itself:

"Some two years ago you may remember my friend Major D. S. Hart asked me what a 'Wampus' was—at that time I did not know, hence I asked you. You fearing you could not give a good description referred the matter to Sheriff Jno. D. Conlee, who explained to Maj. Hart just what a 'Wampus' was. Under separate cover I am sending you one of our daily papers with an account of 'a wampus.' Now I am sure this must be one that left the Navasota bottoms. Show this to Sheriff Conlee and Maj. Hart and I am sure he will again 'liquorate.'"

Yours truly,
R. G. TABOR.

After a careful perusal of the printed description of the animal accompanying the letter, Mr. Conlee states that in several essential points it differs from the genuine wampus. He is of the opinion that the reporter probably confused the Sherman varmint with the nycticebus which generally go abroad at night, and are sometimes met with in Hiawatha precincts as well as in East India.

The real wampus has never been seen except in the Navasota bottom. It is a cross between the felis mariorata and the desmodus and diphylia, and may be readily recognized by the knots on its tail.

JUBILEE MEETING.

Observing a custom of long standing the people of Union Hill, a suburb of Bryan, will hold their annual Jubilee meeting on September 6, beginning at 8 p. m. Interesting program has been arranged for the occasion and a cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

Somewhat out of the ordinary is a neatly framed ad lettered card, that hangs alongside the window of the Wells Fargo express company's office here, where the public is served, which reads as follows: "Courtesy is a duty public servants owe to the public. No trouble to answer questions; it's a part of our duty. E. B. Lomax, Agent." The courtesy of the company's representative here is the subject of many complimentary remarks.

The examining trial of Felix Brown, charged with the killing of Harry Williams at Mudville recently, is in progress before Justice McGee today. County Attorney Bethea conducting the examination. A large number of witnesses are in attendance, and all the time of the court for the day will be taken up by the investigation.

BACK FROM HOUSTON.

H. & T. C. Agents Expect Good Times. Mr. W. S. Wilson, agent here for the Houston and Texas Central railway, has returned from Houston, where he attended a meeting of the agents from compress points on that line Monday.

"The meeting was just a family gathering," said Mr. Wilson to the reporter this morning, and "nothing of much importance was done. It may be of interest to the public to know, however, that many of the agents expect to see as large a business in the freight department this year as that of 1906. Particularly in North Texas is heavy business anticipated.

Locally, business with the road is very satisfactory, and while shipments are not expected to equal those of 1906 there is no complaint of present conditions.
